Enter Stage Right Field Trip Program

- Best for grades 2-5.
- Available beginning Fall 2023
- Cost: $3900, including 2 buses.

LA's most fabulous Arts Ed Program is BACK for 2023/24 school year, live and in person! The program includes:

- Pre-Show Workshop: A world class teacher comes to the classroom and introduces students to theatrical concepts aligned with the California Arts Content Standards!
  - Field Trip: Students are brought to a wildly fun and interactive field trip at 24th Street Theatre where they see the show Enter Stage Right (ESR). ESR catapults students from the ancient history of the theatre to contemporary multimedia production, and brings the magic of theatre to life through improvisation techniques and production components of set, sound, lights, video and live music.

Theatre Residency

24th Street Teaching Artist will teach a sequential series of drama classes to your students. Using California's Visual and Performing Arts standards, the teaching artist engages your students with SEL, storytelling, improvisation, tableau, and pantomime. The residency is fully customizable to your school's needs and is available for K-12 students year-round.

- Cost begins at $7200 for a six week residency for 4 classes or $300 per class hour.

Professional Development for Teachers

Created by master teacher Debbie Devine alongside the LA County Office of Education, this is the most engaging, inspiring and motivating PD your teachers will experience all year.

Available online or in-person, 24th Street Theatre's PD for teachers uses the techniques of performance and artmaking, and the themes of social justice and social-emotional learning to help teachers adapt, improvise and create in the moment. Teachers can use these techniques immediately in the classroom—tomorrow.

“You masterfully wove SEL into a great class on history, theatre, human rights etc. and in the most engaging way I’ve seen yet.”

— Kimberli Breen, MS, CAS, MA, National Behavior Change Agent

- Topics covered: Teaching as a Performing Art, Unconscious Bias, Promising Learners, Social-Emotional Learning.
- Cost:
  - Virtual $2100 (up to 300 attendees)
  - In-person $3040 (up to 60 attendees)
